7. The photographs, digital negatives or prints and videos produced by the photographer, videographer and the company are protected by the Hong Kong copyright laws. The photographer, videographer and the company retain the copyright to all photos, images and video produced. The client may distribute, reproduce or use any images and videos in any manner they like for sharing and enjoyment of friends and relatives but not for profit making purpose. For the avoidance of doubt, the client agrees that the photographer, videographer and the company may use and publish the photographs and videographer and the company use and publish the photographs and videos for educational, editorial, exhibitions, competition and advertising purposes.
8. If the photographer has to cancel this agreement for reasons beyond the photographer' s control, including death, injury and serious sickness, the photographer' s liability shall be limited to a full refund of all monies paid. In that case, the photographer shall make every effort to find an alternative qualified photographer with equivalent skill and experience. The photographer takes the utmost care with respect to exposure, transportation and processing the photographs including using professional grade equipment and professional grade backup equipment. However, in the unlikely event those photographs have been lost, stolen, or destroyed for any reasons, the photographer' s liability is limited to the return of all payment received. The limit of liability for a partial loss of originals shall be a prorated amount of the exposures lost based on the percentage of total number of originals.
